Student Initiatives in Sustainable Agriculture
Student Initiatives in Sustainable Agriculture Conference

• a regional conference for college students (faculty and staff) dedicated to sustainable gardening and farming initiatives (whether well-established or not yet realized)
SISA Goals

• to facilitate a much needed exchange between students involved in and interested in agricultural projects at colleges and universities throughout the Midwest
For Students, By Students

- 8 presentations by leaders of successful garden organizations
- 8 student led discussion sessions (and 1 for faculty)
Other Events

• Keynote address by Will Allen, urban farmer and CEO of Growing Power Inc
• “Young” Farmers Panel
• Greenhorn documentary
• Networking Events
Making It Happen

• Outside Support

• Contacts

• Advertising

• Finances
  • Affordability
  • Grants & Sponsorships
Making It Happen, Again

• April 14-15, 2012

sophie.r.patterson@lawrence.edu http://www.lawrence.edu/sorg/slug