

Creating Change Together: Tales
and Tools from the Central College
“Prairie Project”

Who we are:

- Ellie DuPré, Biology
- Amy Young, German
- Jim Zaffiro, Political Science

Prairie Project Workshop

- Commitment to Sustainability
- GS Core Requirement
- Prairie Project Workshop
 - May 2010
 - 21 Faculty
 - 12 Departments
 - 18+ Courses with GS Designation
 - Additional Courses with GS Content
 - Sustainability Across the Curriculum

Faculty Engagement

- Brainstorming
- Sharing ideas
- Problem solving
- Campus resources
- Website
- Blackboard
- Field Station Prairie
- Farmer's Market
- Change for Change

Global Sustainability Education

Outcomes for Global Sustainability Courses

- Demonstrate an increased awareness of the interconnectedness of the decision made by themselves and others around them;
- Demonstrate an understanding of local and global sustainability challenges faced by their own and by future generations.

Learning Objectives

- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of:
 - Intergenerational responsibility
 - Interconnectedness
 - Systems Thinking
 - Environmental, Economic, Social
 - Personal Action
 - Collective Action

Our Courses

- Ellie DuPré – HIV and the AIDS Pandemic
- Amy Young – Germany and the Environment
- Jim Zaffiro – Global Sustainability

Empowering the Next Generation

